Library Services for You

Waupaca Area Public Library

Welcome

Adult & Reference

Adult Department offers a large variety of books in paper, electronic, audio and large print formats. We also have movies, newspapers, microfilm, telephone books, historical as well as current local and state information.

We offer free use of our internet computers and free wireless Internet access.

Call the Information desk for help with any topic 715-258-4416.

Adult Programming

Lunch & Learn is a daytime program held one Tuesday a month during the spring and the fall. Local speakers are featured as well as a light lunch, provided by volunteers and staff. The program is free but donations are appreciated.

Library Book Discussion Group has an 8 book series running fall through spring.

Exhibit Room, exhibits 6-8 shows each year showcasing local artistry, industry memorabilia and education. If you are interested in showing your collection contact Patsy Servey.

Call the Library for more information 715-258-4414.

Kids & Families

Children's Department, located in the lower level of the library, has a vast collection of books, movies, music, magazines, toys/games and audiobooks. Special collections include Family Collection (parenting issues), Early Childhood Collection (child care provider information) and Spanish/Bilingual Shelf.

Two computers provide game and word processing capabilities, and an Internet computer is available for kids under 14 or adults with small children.

Kids Programs include:

- BabyGarten
- Toddler Time
- Story Time
- Family Nights
- Wednesday Homework Help Night

Special Events include:

- Preschool Easter Party
- Summer Library Program
- Preschool Thanksgiving Feast

Details about these programs and more is available in the Children's Dept, on our website www.waupacalibrary.org children/family page or by calling 715-258-4417.

Just for Teens

Teens (grades 6-12) are welcome to browse an extensive collection of books, audio books, magazines, music and movies in the Best Cellar. Teens are also welcome to listen to music or play video games. Programs are scheduled for every school early dismissal day, during school holidays and summer vacation.

Located in the lower level of the library, the space was designed with help from the Student Library Advisory Group (SLAG). SLAG Meetings are held the first Thursday of each month at 4pm. SLAG members encourage teen participation through programs, purchases and fund raising events. New members are always welcome. See staff in the Teen Dept or call 715-258-4418.
