

WINCHESTER ACADEMY presents the SUMMER SERIES -- 2010

---

The Winchester Academy of Waupaca will present seven programs from June 7 through August 9. The last program on Monday, August 9 will be held at St. Mary Magdalene Church. All other programs will be held on Mondays at the Waupaca Area Public Library. All programs will start at 6:30 P.M. Admission is free for all programs. If cancellation is required an announcement will be made on WDUX-AM and FM.

June 7 – “Learning Using Technology.” Waupaca High School teacher Mark Polebitski will show how modern devices are shaping the way we grow intellectually and socially. The program will demonstrate first hand how emerging technologies affect the learning process and put the power of gathering information into the hands of virtually every person in the industrialized world.
Library: 6:30 P.M.

June 14, Monday – “Monarch of the Butterflies: Monarch Butterfly Biology and Conservation.” Professor Ken Parejko of the University of Wisconsin – Stout will discuss the life history, reproduction, ecology, migration, and conservation of this charismatic insect. Library: 6:30 P.M.

June 21, Monday – “Underwater World of the Caribbean with a Fish Researcher’s Unique View.” An expert in fish identification and research with Reef Environment Education Foundation, Joyce Schulke will present an introduction to Caribbean aquatic marine life and the thrills of her search for new and cryptic species. Schulke is also owner of Classic Photography in Waupaca.
Library: 6:30 P.M.

June 28, Monday – “A Future Through Rawhide Boys Ranch.” David Krause of the Rawhide Boys Ranch will explain how Rawhide has influenced the lives of boys over the last 25 years. The organization is a premier example of Wisconsin’s community spirit and how disadvantages are converted into fulfilling futures. Library: 6:30 P.M. (Sponsor: Myrtle Ragland)

July 19, Monday – “Wisconsin Works: Paper – It’s In the Water.” Paper production has been a mainstay of Wisconsin industry for more than a century. Alan Button, Chairman of the Paper Industry International Hall of Fame, will review the history of Wisconsin’s preeminence in the field. The program is among a series of presentations which pay tribute to some of the state’s most productive forms of commerce. Library: 6:30 P.M.

July 26, Monday – “Aldo Leopold: The Oldest Task in Human History.” Emeritus Professor Stanley Temple, University of Wisconsin – Madison, will explain Leopold’s concept of “land ethic” and how it applies as much to today’s privately owned land as it did in 1949 when A Sand County Almanac was published. Temple was a successor to Leopold as the Beers-Bascom Professor in Conservation and is currently a Senior Fellow at the Aldo Leopold Foundation. Library: 6:30 P.M. (Sponsor: Ann and Vance Linden)

August 9, Monday – “Favorite Operatic Arias and Selections from the American Songbook.” Songs by early humans may have predated speech and contributed to the species. Research today indicates songs help the development of intelligence. Krista Wozniak, New York City, will discuss the development of vocal music, from Stone Age communication to the soaring operas of today’s stage. St. Mary Magdalene Church (N2845 Shadow Road): 6:30 P.M. (Sponsor: J. Ingrid Lesley, in honor of husband, Van)

THE MISSION OF THE WINCHESTER ACADEMY

1. To enrich the life of the community by providing intellectually stimulating and informative programs;
2. To serve the public’s wish for continued intellectual growth;
3. To provide a lay audience for Wisconsin’s scholars and others with developed expertise to share their knowledge and enthusiasms outside the traditional structure of school and college.
