

SLAG Meeting Notes

August 7, 2003

1. Erika was absent so Trinite conducted the meeting. 17 were in attendance. 2 more came at 10:00pm
2. Cassie read the report from the last meeting held on July 3
3. Rickey read the treasurer's report (After the trip to Barnes & Noble SLAG has $60.12 in the checking account)
4. Old Business
 - a. Peg reported that six SLAG members traveled to Barnes & Noble on July 14. They spent $350 on new books for the YA Room. The books have been processed and a label reading, "Selected and purchased by SLAG, 2003" has been placed in each book. You'll find them on the new book shelf.
 - b. T-Shirts - Team Outfitters will be making the SLAG t-shirts with the design by Rollin on the back and "Student Library Advisory Group" on the front. The cost will be about $10 per shirt. We'll have a sign up for shirts at the September meeting.
 - c. Summer Reading Program - We had approximately 90 participants and SLAG had no suggestions to change things next year except to have better weekly prizes. At 12:00 am we chose the grand prize winners. Peg will call the five winners and they will come pick up the prizes.
5. New Business
 - a. Pizza & Pages
August 21, 4:30 Staying Fat for Sarah Byrnes
Banned Book Week Sept. 20 -27 We are all going to try to read banned books and make buttons at the September meeting.
 - b. Teen Read Week (Oct. 19-25)
Theme: Read & Feed
We are going to have a "Reading Marathon" everyday after school. We'll make a reading goal and if we reach that goal Rollin will dye his hair, Peg will get a pie in the face and other SLAG members will participate similarly. We are going to publicize with announcements at school, posters and bookmarks.
 - c. Early Release Days & Days off SLAG decided on the programs they wanted
October 13 - Fear Factor

Teachers' Convention October 31 - Halloween Party
January 15 - to be decided

- d. SLAG did not have any ideas on fundraisers
6. We did not have any other business
7. We talked about Lock-in activities choices
We chose to play games, watch movies, use computers on all levels, sing Karaoke, eat lots of junk food and not sleep a wink!
7. Next Meeting September 4
 - Make buttons for Teen Read Week and Banned Book Week
 - Order t-shirts
8. Meeting adjourned so we could have fun in the library all night long!
