5. Old Business
 - A. Car Wash - We made $130 and would like to make it an annual event
 - B. Living History Festival Dance - Fund raiser - Sell root beer floats at the dance from 6-9 pm
 - C. Summer Reading Program - Peg explained and encouraged all to sign up for the program and come to the events.
 - D. Pizza & Pages - The book this month is Hoot by Carl Hiaasen - Program will be at 4:30 on Third Thursday, June 19
6. New Business
 - A. Mission Statement, Goals and Code of Conduct - Members voted to adopt the mission statement, goals and code of conduct. Some felt we needed to have additional rules for meeting etiquette. Erika and Peg will meet and work on rules.
 - B. T-shirts - Peg asked if members would be interested in having t-shirts that identify our group? All said yes and suggested that we have a t-shirt logo contest. All logos applications are due at the next meeting, July 3.
 - C. Rules for membership - Peg asked if we should have rules or requirements for membership. Some said it might be a good idea. Some suggestions were to require four meeting a year and 3 events? Erika and Peg will work on something to present at the next meeting
 - D. Strawberry Fest Signup - Root beer float and book sale. Everyone is asked to bring baked goods for the bake sale. A signup sheet was passed around. Strawberry Fest is Saturday, June 21. The fundraising event should last from 9 am to 1 pm.

- E. Barnes & noble Field Trip - SLAG scheduled the trip for Monday July 14 from 9 - 2:30 Parents will need to help drive. More at the July 3 meeting.
 - F. Weekly World News vs. The Onion? Peg asked which of the two periodicals the group would like to see in the Best Cellar? (Currently we have a subscription to Weekly World News.) SLAG voted to subscribe to the Onion instead.
8. The Meeting was adjourned at 5:00 pm

Mission Statement

The primary responsibility of Waupaca Area Public Library's Student Library Advisory Group (SLAG) is to support and increase awareness of Young Adult Services and assist the YA Coordinator in making decisions while providing an environment that is fun and friendly to teens.

Goals

- ~ To bring young adults into the library
- ~ To develop and assist with young adult programming
- ~ To aid in all areas of the library's development
- ~ To assist in decisions directly affecting the Young Adult Room
- ~ To assist community, when an occasion arises
- ~ To select and purchase young adult materials

Code of Conduct

When representing SLAG and the library, members must conduct themselves with maturity and respect in such a manner that fairly represents SLAG, its goals and its members.

Adopted June 5, 2003
