

SLAG Meeting Notes
October 2, 2003

1. We made tacos, ate and socialized. Peg introduced the books, Coraline and So You Want to be a Wizard for the Pizza & Pages Program. We played the game two truths and a lie. Any participant who fooled the group was given a $1 "Forgive a Fine" certificate.
2. Erika called the meeting to order and welcomed nine new members!
3. Cassie read the Secretary's Report and the Treasurer's Report

SLAG Funds as of 10/02/2003

Starting Funds	$138.39
Candy & pop sales	20.16 $158.45

4. We discussed old business
 - a. SLAG members were encouraged to sign up for t-shirts at the cost of $10
 - b. We talked about Teen Fear Factor, which was to be held Monday, October 13, The committee met on Monday, October 6th to make plans. Committee members included: Trinitie & Terra Wooten, Allison Piontek, Cassie Banaszak, Raven Hinze, Rickey Pochinski, Samantha Hudziak, Adam Giacalone
 - c. Slag decided to contribute $25 to Teen Read Week (Oct. 19-25) to help purchase food and prizes. they decided that the top readers would get books signed by authors. Meeting Room B will be set up with comfortable chairs, tables and plants to create atmosphere.

Theme: Read & Feed
 - d. Halloween party On Friday, Oct. 31
The committee will be called to set up a meeting. Trin & Terra Wooten, Allison Piontek, Rickey Pochinski, Samantha Hudziak, Adam Giacalone, Cassie Banaszak
5. New Business
 - a. SLAG voted to purchase a pizza oven, not to exceed the cost of $100. The oven will be used to make pizza for library programs and SLAG can sell pizza by the slice. Peg and Erika will be investigating the purchase.
 - b. SLAG members are excited about plans for expansion of the Best Cellar. They are very interested in being a part of the planning process.
6. The meeting was adjourned at 5pm