SLAG Meeting Notes
September 4, 2003

1. We ate junk food, drank highly caffeinated liquids and Peg talked about banned books
2. Erika called the meeting to order (We welcomed one new member, John Laedtke)
3. Cassie read the Secretary's Report
4. Rickie gave the Treasurer's Report

SLAG Funds as of 09/04/2003

Starting Funds		$60.32
Candy & pop sales	78.07	$138.39

5. Old Business
    a. Members signed up to buy SLAG T-Shirts at a cost of $10 per shirt in either grey or khaki
    b. We planned to do another Lock-in next year with more organized games and a designated sleeping room. Some members wanted to have one more than once a year. Peg said she might consider it.
    c. Banned Book Week is Sept. 20 –27. Some SLAG members made buttons to celebrate the event.
    d. Teen Read Week is October 19-25! We accepted a goal of 50 reading marathon hours during that week. SLAG members and other interested teens will sign up to read and will be given snacks during that time. The Best Cellar will be a designated quiet area during reading hours. On Friday we'll have a party to celebrate the event.

        Theme: Read & Feed
6. New Business
    a. The Pizza & Pages book is "HiddenTalents' by David Lubar. Library staff will call SLAG members who have read the book to remind them about the discussion to take place on September 18, at 4:30.
    b. Teen Fear Factor The first Early Release Program will be on October 13, from 1:00 -3:00. SLAG members volunteered to help with time keeping and other proceedings.
    c. During the Teachers' Convention on October 31. SLAG will be having a Halloween Party from 4:00 – 5:00 pm. SLAG members volunteered to help with the party.
    d. Peg's talked about her trip to Ohio and meeting seven authors in two days!
7. Next Meeting October 2, 4:00
   SLAG will be making Teen Read Week posters and buttons and planning Fear Factor games

SLAG Signup

Fear Factor (name & phone)

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Halloween Party

_____
_____
_____
_____

T-shirts Cost $10.00
Name Phone Color (K=Khaki G=grey) Size (s,m,l,xl)

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____