5. Old Business
 - a. New Logo – Peg sent an email to the art teachers at WHS. Not too much response. Someone suggested we give the new members an opportunity to create a logo. SLAG will continue to take submissions of logos.
 - b. Teen Read Month – the theme is “Get Active @ Your Library”
Matt gave details of Teen Read Month activities. Slag members need to make sure they tell their friends about TRM activities! Don't forget to check out print based materials & cut off your due date slip to win fabulous books!
Need volunteers to help plan Halloween Party. Please sign up! Planning committee will meet next Tuesday.

 - c. Author Visit – Patrick Jones will be coming to Waupaca on Thursday, October 19th. Take a book and check it out!
 - d. Banned Book Week – What did you think? The people who attended thought it was “cool.” Someone felt that it would be better attended if it were held at the Library. Kristen felt that if people were encouraged to prepare a dramatic reading we could publicize that as part of the event. Many members commented that they were made aware of books that they hadn't looked at before.
6. New Business
 - a. Pizza & Pages – Next book –Coraline by Neil Gaiman
This book will be discussed on Thursday, November 2nd at 3:40 pm.

Peg asked if anyone in the group who was a part of the planning process would be interested in this conference. Claire L, Ali, KT, Matt B, CJ, Kokie, Val and Tommy all indicated that they would like to do this. Peg will provide more information and will meet with the group to prepare a presentation.

- e. Hansen Furniture Tree Decorating – Last year SLAG had wished to participate in the Hansen Tree Project but we were too late applying.
