

SLAG Meeting Notes
November 1, 2007

1. We sent a paper round for attendance. 11 SLAG members in attendance.
2. Kokie called the meeting to order at 4:05
3. Kokie read the Treasurer's Report
4. Old Business
 - a. More jars for sale – SLAG officers have approved a new recipe for cookie jars. You should have received a postcard asking you to bring an item for the jars. We will be putting the jars together at the Committee Meeting so you can still bring your ingredient by Tuesday.
 - b. Monopoly Tournament – October 15th – Successful event with 26 participating (including bankers and members in charge of refreshments) What would we do differently next time? Members suggested having different games for a Tournament (Life, Risk)
 - c. Banned Book Week – 16 participants. Members who attended felt it went very well. It worked very well after the SLAG Meeting.
 - d. Teen Read Week – Bad week because of the Musical? What should we do differently next year? Members agreed that if the Marathon were held earlier in October more would be able to participate. Have it over a weekend and then the following week, have the party on Saturday.
 - e. Halloween Party – 12 people came to Halloween Party. People there had fun. They thought the spider tennis ball game was inappropriate for older kids. Once again the Musical interfered and members were unable to attend.
5. New Business
 - a. How can we raise more money? Adam suggested we go door to door "asking for more." Claire E thought we should sell hats. Claire L thought the bags we sold several years ago would work again. Cat thought the jewelry we purchased for sale was a good idea.
 - b. Committee Meeting next Tuesday – Committee Meeting to be held on Tuesday the 6th at 3:40. We'll be putting the jars together and talking about additional fund raisers.
 - c. Pizza & Pages – The Song Reader by Lisa Tucker
 - d. Snack & book sharing We ate leftover bagels and cream cheese
