

SLAG Minutes October 1, 2009

1. Take attendance. Welcome new members. 16 members, 3 new members.
2. Call meeting to order
3. Treasurer brings up bills to be paid and asks for approval and gives details of the Treasurer's Report
4. Old Business
  - a. Candy Prices—we voted to keep prices at $.75.
  - b. Catherine Gilbert Murdock visit—went well. We bought her newest book and she autographed it. SLAG donated $40.00 to snacks, and we will enjoy the leftovers today.
5. New Business
  - a. Early Dismissal October 12—We voted to do a Books-to-Movies trivia game that was created by Val this summer.
  - b. Read-n-Feed Marathon—October 19 – 24. Suggestions made for snacks: sundaes, trail mix, fruit, popcorn, finger sandwiches, pie, eggrolls, gardettoes. We also voted to have each hour of reading count for a dollar off of fines.
  - c. Video Games—we have been keeping track which games are being played all month. Melissa will compile the info, and let us vote on which games to donate at the November SLAG meeting.
  - d. CHAP book program—it has been suggested that SLAG host a workshop for making CHAP books, which are a school requirement for seniors. We will form a committee in November to start planning. We talked about whether we should charge a cover fee or just sell food. We think selling food would be better.
  - e. Youth Voice Conference—Melissa turned in scholarship applications for us. We will find out on October 5th if we get the scholarships so we can attend.
  - f. Pizza & Pages – Next book is Little Brother by Cory Doctorow or Among the Hidden by Margaret Peterson Haddix
  - g. Snack & book sharing
6. Next meeting is November 5, 2009.
7. Adjourn
